New town mayor seeks to reassure

NEW Honiton mayor John Zarczynski has reassured the public that the council is not broken and says it is councillors' duty to get on and work with each other for the good of the town.

Cllr Zarczynski was elected mayor a week after Ashley Delasalle was chosen only for her to immediately resign from both the position and the council.

Mrs Delasalle's resignation was followed by five more standing down as the council was reduced to 12 members.

In his first official statement as mayor, Cllr Zarczynski wished to respond to the "negative and personal comments" recently made by ex-councillors.

He said: "I would like to reassure the public that the town council is neither broken nor not fit for purpose as some former councillors have implied.

"The town council would like to thank all those who have recently resigned for the work they have put in over the years.

"There are now six vacancies on the town council and it is hoped that new councillors, whether elected or co-opted, will work with the remaining 12 councillors to move forward with serving the town.

"The council has recently appointed councillors to its committees and working groups and all serving councillors are committed to working together on projects such as the town floral display, allotments, Charter Day, Hot Pennies and the support of community groups.

"New appointments have also been made with councillors taking on special responsibility for tourism and heritage, both of which are important for the town.

"The council's appointed working group chaired by the deputy mayor, Cllr Henry Brown, is conducting an investigation into the town council's finances over the past five years.

"It is vital that this work continues and once the investigation is complete the findings will be made available to the public."

Cllr Zarczynski also confirmed that there is a police investigation into the street market finances and added that no remaining councillor – or anyone involved in the management of the street market – are subject to the investigation.

Cllr Zarczynski, who was officially installed as mayor last night (Monday), at a special ceremony, concluded: "The council has been through a very turbulent time over the past few years, and I must express my deepest admiration for former mayor, Cllr Caroline Kolek, who steered the council through very difficult times having to rise above much unjust criticism.

My priority as leader of the council is to unite councillors and we all have a duty as public servants to get on with working for the good of the town and not allow unjustified criticism to dis-

NEWS FROM AROUND PULMAN'S COUNTRY... East Devon & South Somerset

Andrew Moulding is new EDDC chairman

A SENIOR councillor, with decades of experience in local government, has been elected as the new chairman of East Devon District Council (EDDC).

Cllr Andrew Moulding (Cons), who represents Axminster Town ward, has served in local government for more than 30 years with EDDC and Axminster Town Council.

He has also represented Axminster – the town where he was born – as a county councillor for eight years and was county council chairman for a year before standing down earlier this month.

Cllr Moulding was elected at EDDC's annual meeting on May 17th, and told fellow councillors: "This is a very, very proud moment for me. I have been a district councillor for 30 years and this is the council I love."

He paid tribute to retiring chairman Cllr Stuart Hughes and said: "He has chaired the council with great dignity and fairness over the last two years and he has done a splendid job."

It could have been an Axminster double act as the top as Douglas Hull (Lib Dem), the council's longest serving member with 34 years' experience, was nominated as deputy chairman but lost out in the vote.

He later told Pulman's Weekly News: "I wasn't expecting to win, but maybe get a few Conservative votes – but the whip was on from the party.

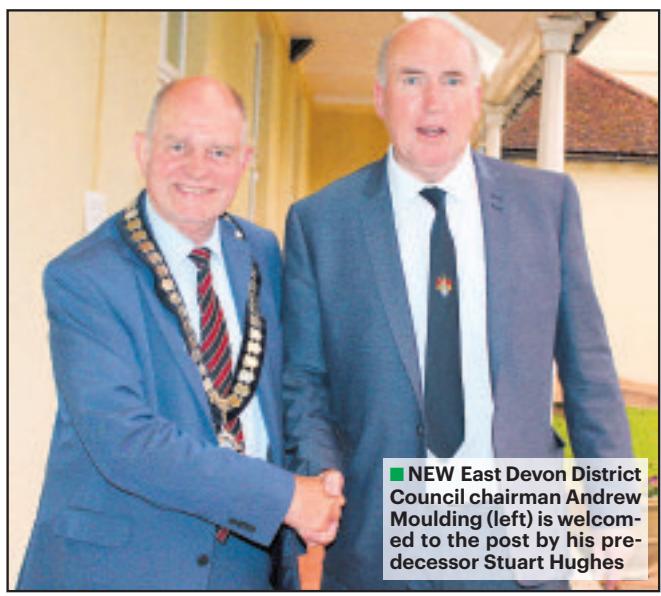

"It is a shame they can't show a little bit of nicely occasionally. Of course, I haven't got the strength of a party whip. I congratulate Andrew and wish him well.

"I shall be back again flexing my muscles, you haven't heard the last from little Douglas."

Cllr Moulding did not wish to comment on Cllr Hull's comments.

Hugo no show at East Devon hustings

SIR Hugo Swire will not be attending any general election hustings in his East Devon constituency this campaign period, a decision that has upset one of his main rivals.

Pulman's View from contacted Sir Hugo's office for comment but had received no reply at the time of going to press.

Independent Claire Wright, who is being backed by a website that advises voters how to vote tactically against the Conservatives and was recently endorsed by author Dame Hilary Mantel, said: "I am really disappointed that Hugo Swire is refusing to attend hustings during the general election period.

"MPs are supposed to be accountable to constituents and this is a golden opportunity for him to talk about how he plans to represent people if he is re-elected.

"It reflects very badly on him that he is refusing to attend.

"I was looking forward to having a robust debate with him and I can only assume that he is refusing to attend because he is worried about being challenged by me – I have been regularly holding him to account for the past three years via my blog and through the media!"

All seven of the candidates for the East Devon constituency – which covers Sidmouth and Ottery St Mary – have been invited to attend a hustings event held at the Holy Trinity Church in Exmouth at 7.30pm on May 30th.

A spokesman on behalf of Hugo Swire told the Express & Echo that: "Hugo has decided that, for this election, he will be holding his own public meetings in East Devon in the build-up to polling day."

Hustings events continue around East Devon and South Somerset during the countdown to the election, with all five Yeovil candidates attending a session hosted by The Churches of Yeovil at The Gateway, Yeovil, on Thursday, May 25th at 7.30pm.

See viewnews.co.uk for updates on other scheduled events as and when we hear about them.

Expanded recycling service rolls out

MORE than 50,000 households in East Devon are just a few weeks away from being able to recycle more items than ever before when a new improved weekly recycling service begins.

The district-wide scheme will be in place from Monday, June 12th, following a successful rollout earlier this year in Exmouth.

The council has added cardboard, plastics, cartons / Tetrapaks and small electrical items to the list that residents can already recycle.

Careful planning has gone in to introducing the new service across the district and with a further 51,000 homes to collect recycling and waste from, the council and its contractors SUEZ are advising that there could be some limited disruption as collections settle down.

The council is appealing to residents to be patient during this period and to contact them if they have concerns or questions.

Mark Williams, East Devon District Council's Chief Executive, said: "We are here to help our residents with these changes and we have a dedicated team of officers who are happy to come and meet you to try and help resolve any issues you may have.

"The new service will make it easier for our residents to recycle more and in order for us to achieve this we have had to make some major changes to our usual collection routes.

"This has meant some day and week changes to collections for some of our residents which may take a while to get used to.

"We have meticulously planned the new service over the last 14 months but any change to a service as important as recycling and waste involving more than 51,000 households, 260 blocks of flats, and thousands of streets will bring some teething problems at the start.

"We have worked hard with our contractors SUEZ to minimise any disruption, but there will inevitably be a small number of issues initially as everyone gets used to the changes.

"Our letters contain information specific to each household and I would urge residents to read them carefully; keep them to hand and please use them to help you separate recycling in to the correct containers.

"We're here to help and if you need assistance, please contact us."

The council has been holding an extensive public awareness campaign to promote the changes and thousands of people have been learning more about the new service at a series of information days.

These events are a great opportunity to find out more about the new service and the next events are being held at:

- Axminster Library on Thursday, May 25th from 10am to 12 noon;
- Ottery St Mary Library on Thursday, June 1st from 10am to 1pm;
- Axe Vale Festival on Saturday, June 17th from 10am to 5.30pm.

Further events are planned over the next few weeks and the council will be sending out information as they are organised.

- SOUTH Somerset District Council has provided an expanded doorstep recycling service for some years.

IKEA on the way to Exeter

IKEA will have a store on the doorstep of East Devon next summer.

The company has confirmed it will open its Exeter branch in summer 2018.

The store is under construction on land off Newcourt Way, Exeter, and will become the company's 21st store in the UK. Currently, the nearest IKEA stores are in Bristol and Southampton.

Knives amnesty across Somerset

POLICE have released shocking images of hundreds of knives handed in during an amnesty across Somerset recently.

In Yeovil, dozens of bladed weapons were found by officers in a special bin left out for the public.

Avon and Somerset Police stationed surrender bins at ten locations across the county between April 28th and May 8th to tackle knife crime.

A total of 198 knives were surrendered over the short period – a significant rise from just 59 weapons surrendered in a similar operation last October.

Chief Inspector Zoe Chegwyn, force lead for knife crime, said the police force were 'really encouraged' by the number of knives that were surrendered in the bins.

"Every knife surrendered is one less knife out on the street, where they can and do cause serious harm," she said.

"It's not just the number of knives which is encouraging, but the type.

"There were some nasty-looking machetes and zombie knives left in the bins, which are usually only carried by people wanting to hurt others."

The police force has said it is considering the possibility of placing permanent surrender bins across the area.

Chief Inspector Chegwyn said: "The surrender bins were just a number of actions we took that week to try and reduce the dreadful impact knives can have on individuals, families and communities."

She said police cadets also took part in a test purchasing operation to ensure retailers are not breaking the law in selling knives to under-18s, and patrols were put in place in knife 'hotspot' areas.

She added: "We also continue our work in schools with young people, educating them on the dangers of carrying knives and letting them know about actions they can take to potentially save a life."

Devon D-Day veteran becomes world's oldest tandem skydiver

DUNKESWELL Airfield was the location for a D-Day hero to become the world's oldest tandem skydiver – aged 101 and 37 days.

Daredevil Verdun Hayes leapt from a plane at 15,000ft to glide into the record books.

The great-granddad jumped with ten other people, including three generations of his family and the doctor who signed him off.

He stole the world title after knocking Canadian Armand Gendreau, who was 101 and three days when he jumped in 2013, off the top spot.

The centenarian from North Devon jumped after the dive was postponed on the day before due to the weather.

It comes a year after the Second World War vet, who served during the D-Day invasion of Gold Beach, became the oldest Brit to complete the feat aged 100.

Verdun was named after the 1916 Battle of Verdun on the request of his dad Joseph Hayes, who served in the First World War as a Sapper with the Royal Engineers.

The soldier, who fought during the Battle of the Somme, wrote to his pregnant wife Mary from the front line suggesting the moniker.

Verdun also served in the Army, as a Lance Corporal, during the Second World War, and was a signaller and wireless operator for the Royal Signals.

While in the Forces he was caught up in an explosion that killed his friend, Sgt Edgar

■ VERDUN Hayes (in yellow) leaps into the record books

Robertson, and sustained shrapnel injuries to his ribs and hands.

The pair had been digging trenches together in Choux, France, when a German shell exploded nearby.

Verdun, who is a widower, said: "How I came home from WWII I do not know. I was so near to the edge of everything.

I lost any amount of friends in no time at all really. I just didn't think I would ever return home.

"Surviving an explosion when others didn't... I was just lucky I guess."

Verdun was later awarded the Legion d'Honneur, the highest decoration in France.

After the war he worked in his family's building business before becoming the secretary of the Somerton branch of The Royal British Legion in Somerset.

His jump was in aid of the RBL, which provides support to the UK Armed Forces.

Official launch of the Ottery St Mary Food & Families Festival

THE 2017 Ottery St Mary Food & Families Festival has been officially launched with an event at Tickey-Boo in the town centre.

Festival organisers, sponsors and friends gathered to toast the fifth annual festival, to be held on Saturday, June 3rd.

Each year, the town becomes a melting pot of producers, traders, chefs, young cooks, real ale fans, locals and visitors, enjoying a day celebrating all that is good about East Devon food.

This year, the festival features cookery demonstrations from The Deer Park Hotel, The Pig at Combe, Exeter Cookery School, Tina Chauhan and Bowmers Restaurant. Up and coming talent will be showcased with Young South West Chef of the Year, Ethan Clarke from The King's School, plus fellow students Ffion Gallantree and Skye Clarke.

Tickey-Boo is hosting a children's fun cookery event, with story time at the library and other activities at The Institute.

Masterclasses in puddings, knife skills and wine tasting with the Volunteer Inn, Tumbling Weir Hotel and Christopher Piper Wines are also located in The Institute.

A street market on the day allows visitors to enjoy fare from South West producers such as Bloomberry Juice Company, Eat the Smoke, Dartmoor Chilis, Coldharbour Farm, Exeter Brewery, Frandie Macaron and Shaldon Bakery.

The event starts at 10am on June 3rd.

Twinnings visit Seaton

SEATON & District Twinning Association prepared a busy schedule for when their friends from the French twin town of Thury-Harcourt in Normandy paid a visit.

The twinnings came to the town in early May and a welcome reception was held in the Methodist Church on the Saturday morning to greet the French contingent, who had travelled overnight.

Cakes and coffee were well received and town crier David Craner performed a welcoming cry.

Seaton & District Twinning Association publicity officer Vivien Rodger said: "A visit to the amazing Seaton Jurassic Centre was planned for the daytime and some host families dined with their guests at the cafe there."

"The group enjoyed a guided tour of the centre and took time to chat and relax, masquerade as an octopus and do a little fishing. The centre has so much to offer."

In the evening the party of more than 100 twinnings met for a celebratory dinner at The Dolphin Hotel in Beer, with drinks on arrival,

Anders Larsson
Chief reporter | anders@viewnews.co.uk

a traditional English three-course meal, wine and lots of good conversation in both languages.

The visit also included a trip to Powderham Castle, including a guided tour of the ancient building and a deer safari in the grounds.

Ms Rodger said: "Despite the rain, they enjoyed their trip, sporting a colourful array of umbrellas."

"The twinnings boarded the safari train and were delighted to see the beautiful herds of young deer."

"All too soon, Monday came and the hosts had to say 'au revoir' to their guests."

"But these friends will meet again next year when Seaton & District Twinning Association travels to Thury-Harcourt."

■ HUSTINGS: Gill Westcott (Green Party), Matthew Wilson (Lib Dem), Neil Parish (Conservative), Caroline Kolek (Labour) and The Reverend Ian Kirby

Parliamentary candidates face the public

ALL four general election candidates for the Tiverton & Honiton Constituency took questions at hustings in Axminster Guildhall.

Neil Parish (Conservative), Caroline Kolek (Labour), Matthew Wilson (Lib Dem) and Gill Westcott (Green Party) took questions on a range of issues including a second EU referendum, fox hunting, student loans, healthcare, taxation and much more.

Organised by Axminster Churches Together, the hustings took place on Thursday, May 18th, chaired by the Reverend Ian Kirby.

When asked if they would support holding a second referendum on whether or not the UK should leave the EU,

Anders Larsson
Chief reporter
anders@viewnews.co.uk

the answers differed. Mrs Kolek and Mr Parish (a former member of the European Parliament) both said "no".

Ms Westcott said "yes" whilst Mr Wilson replied "no" to the question, but emphasised there should be a referendum once conditions of the negotiated Brexit deal are known.

The final question posed to candidates was: How would you vote on any future motion to repeal the fox hunting ban?

Mrs Kolek said: "I am 100 per cent against fox hunting. I will be out there campaigning even if I'm not elected. I think it is barbaric."

Mr Parish took a different view, and said: "I would vote to repeal the hunting act and make sure hunting is managed in the proper way."

Ms Westcott said: "I see no reason why we can't have sport without animal cruelty."

Mr Wilson replied: "I will obviously vote to keep the fox hunting ban in place. It (fox hunting) seems like a very negative indication of where we are as a country."

The candidates were set for a return to Axminster yesterday (Monday) for hustings at Axe Valley Academy and will be in Honiton's Methodist Hall on Thursday (May 25th) afternoon at 2pm.

HALFF cook with students

AXMINSTER-based charity Health and Local Food for Families (HALFF) held a cooking workshop for students (and their families) of Cranbrook Education Campus.

Funded by East Devon District Council via NHS England's healthy new towns programme, 'Cranbake' gave students and families a chance to cook a variety of meals together as part of a four-week course.

The classes were led by HALFF cook Bernadette Johnson, who said: "I shared ideas and tips for healthy day to day cooking and eating.

"It was lovely to see each family coming together to follow the recipes, creating the dishes and having fun at the same time."

First marathon raises £1,700 for The Project

A SEATON woman raised more than £1,700 for an Axminster-based charity by running her first London Marathon.

After many years of trying for a place through ballot, Margy Pearce was eventually successful and decided to add a fundraising element.

She chose The Project, which supports youngsters with mental health issues.

The Project has groups in Axminster and Chard, and serves East Devon, South Somerset and West Dorset – and also offers support to parents of the youngsters it helps.

Margy is an experienced long-distance runner and a member of Axe Valley Runners, but new to the London Marathon.

Summing up her race in London, she said: "My time was 3.49.59, which I was very pleased about.

"It was a fantastic experience, different to any other race I have done.

"I think maybe that is due to the volume of people supporting you and running amongst so many other runners."

"I did a lot of my training with Alan Morbey from Axe Valley Runners."

"He also got a place but was at a different start to me, so it was quite unnerving not to be starting off together."

But she quickly got going, and said: "I had a permanent smile on my face, well, for three quarters of the way until my hip and legs started hurting."

But she pulled through and stressed the importance of support from other runners, saying: "I did have the good fortune of chatting to guy from Kenilworth Runners and seeking out his family looking for a Welsh flag."

"We ran together for half the race, which was brilliant, it is always great to meet runners from other clubs."

"There was also a guy at the start with me trying to set a record running in flip flops."

Fundraising has exceeded expectations, and a cheque for £1,742.52 was presented to The Project founder Debbie Humberstone on May 16th.

Margy, who works at Poco in Beer, said: "When I contacted Debbie last year, I said that it would probably be a few hundred pounds.

"I would not have been able to raise even near this amount if it wasn't for the support from my colleagues at work, family and friends.

"A big thank you to them."

"I am hoping the amount raised is going to help The Project carry on its great work by supporting young people on the path to better mental health."

Explaining why she chose The Project, she said: "I always said I would do it [running London Marathon] for a local cause if I got in."

"A few years ago I saw some girls leafleting for The Project."

"I got a leaflet and kept it in mind."

Debbie said: "We are extremely grateful. This amount of money is fantastic."

It is not too late to sponsor Margy, online donations can be made at mydonate.bt.com/fundraisers/margaretpearce1

Honiton sculptor's 'Hope & Renewal' in Exeter

HONITON sculptor Martin Staniforth's latest instalment was met with praise as it stood proudly in the Cathedral Green in Exeter last week.

Morth, as he is known to his friends, created 'Hope & Renewal' from the remains of the Royal Clarence which burnt to the ground last October.

The striking sculpture used more than a tonne of the hotel's burnt timbers and was unveiled by Exeter MP Ben Bradshaw.

Morth said: "It's been a real honour to work with wood that is 500 years old and to give new life to materials that would have been thrown away. I have contrasting feelings about this 'Hope & Renewal' project: great sadness at the loss of a historic building, that survived Second World War bombing, and yet also great excitement to create something for the future."

Several charities embraced 'Hope & Renewal' for the way it can support individuals on a journey of recovery. In particular Stop Abuse

Peter Hodges
Reporter | peter@viewnews.co.uk

For Everyone (SAFE) and Headway Devon staff and service users have helped with the process. Sarah Richards from SAFE said "It's been fantastic to be involved with this creative initiative and to raise awareness of the supportive work that we deliver to help those suffering from domestic abuse."

Some representatives from these charities joined a creative wellbeing workshop in April to help design and shape the sculpture. The final piece is four metres long and four metres high.

A laser cutter has been used to burn letters into recovered floorboards, that had survived the October fire, to make a plaque.

Morth added: "It seems cruel to subject these survivors to further fire treatment. There is also an inscription on the sculpture, burnt the same way, that reads "E cineribus resurgo MMXVII" (out of the ashes I rise, 2017).

Devon Community Foundation have been supportive of the project by awarding Morth a grant towards it. Laura Hewitt from DCF added: "We are delighted to be able to support this fantastic initiative. It is groups like this working on the frontline that are so essential to our communities. It's what makes DCF so important to ensure that together with donors and local groups we can build strong and vibrant communities for everyone in Devon, both now and for the future."

Offwell's Roman visitors

THE Ancient Civilisation of Rome was brought vividly to life at Offwell Primary School recently.

Staff from the Royal Albert Memorial Museum in Exeter visited the school and took the two oldest classes through a number of activities centred around the Seaton Down Hoard and the Roman occupation of the British Isles.

The children used metal detectors to find lost artefacts and then identified them as modern or ancient; they completed a map and made comparisons between then and now; they designed and struck their own coins and met a Roman legionary who told tall tales of the Seaton Down Hoard and helped the children stretch their imaginations.

An exhibition about the hoard will be opening at RAMM in July 2017 when all 22,888 coins will be on display.

■ THE new prefects at Honiton Community College

New prefects at community college

HONITON Community College has elected seven new prefects for the forthcoming year of school.

The new prefects came through a gruelling process to be elected and thoroughly deserve their tie, badge and status.

The seven prefects are split between five different roles within the college and will be involved in various activities throughout the next 12 months.

Within their roles they will also have a project of their choice to complete.

Flo White and Rhys Phillips are both Sports Prefects, while Tom Lilley and Amelie Leach are Well-being Prefects. Natasha Pavey is the Academic Prefect, Faye Macklin is the Transition Prefect and Anna Anna Machewska is the Transitional Support Prefect.

Head of PE Hannah Brown said: "The last few weeks before Easter proved nerve-wracking for some year 10 students. With the exam season almost on us for our year 11 students, it was time for the year 11 prefects to hand over their responsibility to a new group of year 10 students. 31 applications later and a gruelling interview process seven new prefects were recruited from year 10. And we would like to say a fond farewell and a huge thank you to the old prefects; Amberina Askew, Ashley Mitchell, Charles Finney, Charlie Davies, Lauren Gavin, Rebecca Spence and Will Lancaster."

Scouts tackle plant challenge

THE Wall Scout Troop in Honiton recently swept, weeded and replanted the planters by the traffic lights on the corner of Dowell Street.

This is the sixth year that the 1st Honiton Scout Group have taken on this community challenge.

Scout leader Helen Turner said: "We would like to say a big thank you to Homebase who have supplied us with the plants to do this. We think that it gives drivers something nice to look at whilst waiting for the lights to change."

Pedallers' night of roadside bicycle repairs

AXE Valley Pedallers (AVP) members are all pumped up after an evening of bicycle mechanics at Seaton's new Cyclelife shop.

Cyclelife proprietor Ian Bruton ran them through their paces in a specially-arranged club event that covered essential bike safety checks and delivered a puncture repair masterclass.

Members were taught the essentials of roadside repairs and were given a chance to practice their newly acquired skills in the workshop.

The event was part of the club's efforts to give even more to its growing membership by holding monthly social events to complement the regular club rides that take place throughout the week.

This year the club has already held a successful pub quiz at The White Hart in Colyford and a cycling skills coaching session at the Torbay Velopark.

As an added bonus, donations

FULLY FOCUSED: Members found the visit worthwhile by members at this year's monthly social events have already raised more than £100 for the club's chosen charity, Devon Air Ambulance Trust (DAAT).

AVP chairman Jonathan Read-Bone commented: "As the club continues to grow, we really want to give our members a chance to get together off the bike and enable cyclists of all types and ability to socialize and meet new people through their passion for cycling.

"After the recent mechanics evening, everyone is definitely pumped up and ready for more AVP social events."

Axe Valley Pedallers attracts cyclists from Axminster, Seaton, Lyme Regis and the surrounding areas.

The club's regular road and off-road rides take in routes covering the East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset country-side.

For more information on Axe Valley Pedallers, visit www.axe-valleypedallers.co.uk or find the club on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram.

Internationally best-selling crime writer Sophie Hannah will introduce her new psychological thriller, Did You See Melody? and discuss her series of Poirot books.

Anna Pavord, author of

The Tulip and The Independent's gardening writer, will talk about her latest book, Landskipping.

Hugo Bugg, one of the youngest garden designers ever to win gold at the Chelsea Flower Show, will be speaking about his ideas and work, and poet Annie Freud will discuss the connections between her verse and paintings.

In addition to other speakers, there will be workshops for children, including bushcraft, film-making, art and creative writing.

The festival has secured sponsorship for the Hugo

Bugg talk from country house hotel The Pig at Combe.

Sophie Hannah

Festival directors Samantha Knights and Paddy Magrane commented: "We are building on the success of last year's inaugural event, with an exciting mix of botanists, broadcasters, gardeners, journalists, novelists and poets.

Advertiser Announcement

What is a Veterinary emergency?

VETERINARY practices offer 24hr emergency service for their patients, but not all animal owners are aware of this. Sometimes they worry about calling in the middle of the night, or think the problem can be left until the morning. Although we don't have time to talk in depth about different emergencies, we will highlight common signs in which immediate veterinary attention should be sought:

Superficial grazes, cuts and wounds that do not bleed or seem painful can be cleaned and dressed at home. If there is continued bleeding, discharge, pain or open wounds, the animal will need pain relief and further treatment.

CRGV (Alabama Rot)

There has been a confirmed case of CRGV (Alabama Rot) in the area in the last few weeks. This disease is extremely rare but often fatal. Most cases start with sores and swelling, normally on the paws or lower legs, but they can be anywhere on the body or face. The majority of skin problems are not caused by CRGV, however if you are concerned please contact your vet. The cause of this disease is currently unknown so it is difficult to give specific advice regarding prevention. You may wish to bathe your dog's legs and face if they get muddy following a walk, however it is not known if this has any benefit in preventing the disease. There is more information available on the Anderson Moores facebook page and website. (www.andersonmoores.com/owner/CRGV.php)

Blocked Bladder. Male cats attempting to urinate but not able to pass any urine, or only small amounts. Although this may be a simple cystitis, some are prone to a blocked bladder, which can rapidly become a very serious condition.

- Some large breed dogs are prone to bloated stomachs (GDV). This often occurs after food or exercise. They quickly bloat, start retching, become subdued and can collapse. They need rapid treatment.

- Road traffic accidents are common in cats. Signs vary from scuffed nails, pain, difficulty breathing, bleeding and collapse. Animals should always be checked over as some injuries are not always initially apparent.

- Breathing difficulties. Dogs often pant if hot or excited. If a dog is struggling to breathe or their gums are pale, blue or purple, they need treatment. If a cat pants or is making excessive effort to breathe it needs attention immediately. There are many reasons for this, such as asthma or heart failure but they all need immediate attention.

- Collapse. Dogs, cats and rabbits may collapse for many different reasons. Any collapsed animal should be seen by a veterinary surgeon to assess the cause and give treatment as necessary.

- Heatstroke. With the hotter weather coming, heatstroke becomes a real risk. Dogs left in cars, even for a few minutes, can develop heatstroke and die. They are also at risk if they over exercise in hot weather and do not drink enough. Be aware of excessive panting and increased body temperature.

- Poisoning. Dogs and cats frequently eat things they shouldn't. The common culprits are chocolate, raisins, lilies, rat bait, slug bait, antifreeze, permethrin (found in some flea products) in cats and human medications such as ibuprofen. If you suspect any of these, call a vet immediately.

This is not an exhaustive list but may give you food for thought when worrying whether to call a vet or not. Sometimes a phone call and peace of mind may be all you need!

East Devon's longest serving mayor, Ottery St Mary's Cllr Glyn Dobson, writes for the View From HAVING first been elected as Mayor for Ottery St Mary in 2007, I have now been elected for the eleventh time and the sense of honour remains the same.

It is a great privilege to lead the council in the town where I have lived for more than 50 years and have a tremendous affection for.

Of course, without the support of my fellow councillors, my position would be far more difficult.

All town councillors are volunteers and most of them put in many hours each to fulfil their role, and my thanks go out to them.

Ottery has changed considerably in the last ten years and probably the most controversial topic is the number of new houses that have been built.

Although we have far exceeded our quota, I am sure there will be pressure to build yet more houses.

Hopefully the next 12 months will see most of the development completed in the town with the old factory site completed and the Salston Hotel converted into apartments.

One thing that is of great concern is the lack of planning when it comes to the infrastructure in the town.

There is an urgent need to improve the facilities for education for both the primary school and Kings.

Both traffic and parking is a major concern in the town, particularly in the centre of town and this needs to be addressed ASAP.

I appreciate these things will not happen overnight but they should have been addressed before planning permission was granted for the housing developments, not forcing upon us the urgent situation, which we did foresee, and that has now become apparent.

We are now in the final stages of producing the Neighbourhood Plan which, when passed by the various bodies will make the council a statutory consultee and give us a greater say in planning decisions.

Watch for the leaflet that will come through your door and posters that will go up in the town and let the council have any comments you may have.

The new library in Ottery St Mary is proving a great success and is becoming a very busy hub in the town.

It was a difficult project for the council to deliver, but was certainly worth all the hard work.

The Heritage Society would like to take over the old library building and create a Heritage Centre incorporating the history of the Tar Barrels.

Ottery is one of the oldest towns in East Devon and we should be proud of our past.

I wish the centre every success in their venture and I am sure it will attract many visitors to the town.

Our next big event is the Food and Families Festival which takes place in Ottery St Mary on Saturday June 3rd. I hope many of you will be able to attend.

Knitted garden grows at THG

KNITTERS and crocheters of all ages have created a 3D knitted garden, which is on exhibition at Thelma Hulbert Gallery in Honiton.

More than 5,000 people with a wide range of abilities created the garden, including families, knitting groups, schools, Brownies and those with visual impairments and learning disabilities.

As the garden tours the UK, local people at each exhibition venue add further knitted or crocheted pieces so it continues to grow.

THG Curator Angela Blackwell said: "The gallery is blooming with flowers, trees, a knitted picnic and all sorts of little animals and insects. I love to see our visitors coming out with smiles on their faces."

Plans for summer fair taking shape

ALL at St Mary's Church in Ottery St Mary are busy planning their annual summer fair, which once again will be held in the grounds of Cadhay House.

The event will feature an ever popular range of events, stalls and entertainments on offer.

There is plenty to look forward to, including musical entertainment and lots of fun activities for children, as well as the usual selection of tasty treats.

The summer fair will take place on Saturday, August 26th and there will be more information available in the next few months.

COLYFORD: Members of Colyford WI enjoyed a fish and chip lunch before their May meeting.

They were pleased to hear that the group Spring meeting at the end of April had been a success and were thanked for the contributions of excellent home-made biscuits. The entry from Colyton WI won the competition.

There was an amusing account of the Spring council meeting in Torquay and there were also votes for the final two resolutions.

The results of these votes will be taken to the national annual meeting in June.

Following this, the group's 42nd annual meeting took place and Sue Kightly from Colyton WI was welcomed as the independent teller.

The treasurer presented the financial statement for the 2016/2017 year and there were reports from the secretary and the retiring president.

Four new members were welcomed onto the committee, joining the current secretary and treasurer, and new president Ruth Higgs was elected.

Committee members were thanked for their hard work during the previous year and Chris Wheeler was presented with a pot plant in

The results of the competitions were as follows: Aimee Guard won the Jean Allsopp rose bowl for a flower arrangement in an unusual container, Christine Palacio won the cup for the monthly flower competition, and the cup for the monthly general competition was presented to Gwynneth Brazendale.

Margaret Nicholas was elected as president, Aimee Guard became vice president and Denise England appointed as secretary.

The next meeting will be held on June 20th at 2.15pm, when Wendy Breckon will recognition of her time as president.

At the next meeting, on June 7th, the talk is about Chinese Brush Art.

For more information contact Elizabeth Harding on 01297 624250.

ALL SAINTS: The members and guests of All Saints and District WI had a last minute change of speaker at the meeting on May 9th, when Dawn Lawrence very kindly offered to step in giving a talk entitled 'Two Steps Behind'.

Speaking on behalf of wildlife trusts, especially the Born Free Foundation, her subject is the world's endangered species, featuring 126 animals worldwide. Dawn read from her highly entertaining book which is written in verse and illustrated.

HRH The Prince of Wales commented when given a copy of the book: "This is a great way to educate and help conservation at the same time."

Our competition, which was to write a limerick to longevity, was won by Gloria Walsh.

At our next meeting on June 13th at 2.30pm, Angela Brook Smith will be giving a buttonhole demonstration and talk on British Cut Flowers. All visitors will be warmly welcomed."

For more information please contact Bev Walsh 01297 32899.

Pat's first design was done on a flat basket using variegated hebe, conifer, griselinia, and euonymus then filling in with Michaelmas daisies, purple alliums, small daffs, apricot colour tulips and a pink camellia made a most colourful arrangement.

Her second arrangement was a herb basket and after putting in various herbs she wound sissal around the container which certainly gave you ideas for something a bit different.

Next Pat worked on 'Holiday Time' and for this she had made a large container from insulating board and painted it bronze, inspired by New Orleans and its colours.

Something one or two of us hadn't seen before was purple dyed lillies, then orange carnations, yellow tulips, and bright green sissal balls – all very colourful.

Following that we were taken to a representation of ancient times at Chanberry Ring Hill using a bamboo bowl.

Pat used green cornus, tuberosa (scent of the night), white astroemeria, green pom pom chrysanthus and white roses.

Finally, using a wire stand, Pat did two small arrangements – top and bottom – using large fatsia leaves, rosemary, pink roses, carnations and pink and purple flowers to match. All made for a very interesting afternoon.

A vote of thanks was given by Jean Underdown. The chairman went on to say members had enjoyed a coach trip to the plant fair at Powderham Castle and had had a good day weatherwise.

Two visitors were also welcomed to the afternoon and afterwards we all had tea and cake.

The next meeting (by ticket, for members) will be our emerald anniversary and we have Nicky Heal from Taunton; there will be no competition.

Following that, the meeting on July 4th at Colyford Hall from 2.15pm is called 'I'm In The Mood' by Julia Harrison from Exmouth and the competition is 'Moody Blues'.

Do come along and join us for a relaxing afternoon of flowers.

Pat Boundy entertains at flower club meeting

COLYFORD FLOWER CLUB:

The speaker for May was Pat Boundy from Holsworthy, whose first title was 'Time and Rhythm'.

Pat's first design was done on a flat basket using variegated hebe, conifer, griselinia, and euonymus then filling in with Michaelmas daisies, purple alliums, small daffs, apricot colour tulips and a pink camellia made a most colourful arrangement.

Summer blooms in Axminster

AXMINSTER FLOWER CLUB: The club enjoyed a memorable flower demonstration during its May meeting, given by Nicky Heal.

It was display of summer flowers starting with a tray of roses and continuing with a more modern arrangement of sunflowers, yellow roses and carnations.

A blue and white arrangement using monkshood and white stocks followed, and the finale was a serenade based on the colours of strelitzia.

Nicky also showed the members how to fold and weave foliage to obtain welcome additions to flower arrangements. It was a very enjoyable afternoon for the members.

Axminster Flower Club meets at the United Reform Church in Axminster and welcomes new members for their demonstrations and workshops on the second Friday of each month.

TRANSFORMING COGNITIVE CARE

Honiton and surrounding villages came out in full support of Dementia Awareness Week this year.

A whole range of awareness raising activities were coordinated by Honiton Dementia Action Alliance which kicked off with a presentation to Clyst Hydon and Talaton breakfast club on how to work towards becoming a Dementia Friendly Village.

Dementia Friends Awareness Sessions were held thorough the week in various organisations including Cosmic and Tesco Stores leading to and amazing total of 1835 Dementia Friends now created by Honiton DAA since its formation 2 years ago.

Tesco in Honiton embraced the week by putting on a Dementia Awareness display, selling books and Honiton DAA Bags for life and having a raffle towards HDAA funds.

The week culminated on Saturday with a Health and Wellbeing Day at The Beehive where 26 groups had information stands with a rolling programme of short presentations from Hospital and Community Health teams including the Minor Injuries Unit, Devon Docs, Mental Health Services, Hospice Care and Dr Stephen Pearson on "Research is Hope in Dementia".

The finale of the week was a 5K Family Fun Run to raise awareness that keeping fit and active can reduce your risk of getting dementia.

With more than 60 runners aged 8 to 80 the event was a huge success and a real example of how the Honiton community can pull together for a good cause.

Honiton Running club members coordinated the route which was marshalled by Air Cadets and staff from Santander Bank. Staff from LED Leisure managed the registration of runners.

Jude Schmidt from the Leisure Centre lead the warm up exercises along with music provided by Otter Windows. Tesco kindly provided a welcome drink and fruit for runners on their completion of the course.

Heather Penwarden Chairman of Honiton DAA and League of Friends said how absolutely delighted she was with how the whole week had gone.

She said: "We were not voted Dementia Friendly Rural Community of the year for nothing and events like this show how motivated folk are in Honiton to raise awareness and help support people living with dementia."

"The fun is not over yet as next weekend is our Honiton Hospital Fete when the sun is set to shine on a super afternoon of traditional food, cream teas, ice creams, live music and the chance to join in with some Line Dancing Demonstrations."

Anonymous donation made to Dr Starey's charity walk

CHARITY walker Dr Nigel Starey has received a most-welcome but anonymous donation in the post.

The donation consisted of an envelope with money, and Dr Starey would like to thank the person who sent it, and make sure that the cash is for his charity walk.

As previously reported, Musbury resident Dr Starey is in the process of walking the South West Coast Path in aid of Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity and Hospice UK.

Having had a month off work to cover a considerable distance, he is now completing the rest of the walk in phases.

He said: "I received a sum of money in an envelope.

"It was a few hundred pounds

"There was no indication who it was from or what it related to.

"I am assuming it is a donation for my sponsored walk and plan to split it between the causes."

He would like to thank the person who made the donation and promises not to reveal their identity should they wish to remain anonymous.

Mr Starey can be contacted at nigel.starey@nhs.net

Anyone interested in joining him for the walk or making a donation can find out more online at www.justgiving.com/fundraising/Nigel-starey1

Gym club coach up for top award

HONITON Gymnastics Club high-performance coach Helen Reddy has been shortlisted for the Coach of the Year Award in the Devon Sports Awards 2017.

The Level Five gymnastics coach, who has been involved in the sport for more than 30 years, will now attend a glittering awards ceremony at Exeter's Sandy Park in June.

Helen has been recognised by awards' judges thanks to her tireless work at both Honiton Gymnastics club (where she is a coach and board member) and at Ivybridge Community College (where she is Head of Performing Arts and runs the gymnastics academy).

After a sporting career as a national-level gymnast, Helen took over the reins at Honiton Gymnastics Club in 2001 – along with Emma Smith and Pam Burns – after her coaches left the area.

Since then the club has grown tremendously in size and success, with Helen at the heart of club and coach development.

Honiton Gymnastics Club has increased participation from less than 50 gymnasts in 2007 to now almost 400 young people, with the team of 30 plus coaches being guided by Helen.

In addition to leading the coaching team, Helen also masterminds the club's events, including organising the UK's biggest annual acrobatic gymnastics development competition.

She also coaches the club's squad acrobatics group, with recent successes including coaching and choreographing routines for the Senior British Women's Group champions and Junior (13-19) Men's Four Champions.

Away from Honiton, as Head of Performing Arts at Ivybridge Community College, Helen runs the most successful school gymnastics team in the UK.

Training at lunch times and after-school, her team won more national titles than any other school at last year's BSGA floor and vault and acrobatic gymnastics championships.

■ THE nationwide armed forces Baton charity, based in Honiton, is launching a new initiative with a specially adapted tandem.

The 'Baton Tandem' is a precision piece of equipment that has flexible adjustment, enabling service personnel who have lost the full use of their legs to challenge themselves and gain a sense of freedom and adventure.

Sitting in the front seat to experience the rush a person can 'hand crank' while their legs are supported.

The person in the rear cycles, steers and changes gear.

The tandem, which has cost the charity £6,000, was specially made in Germany, and recently delivered to the UK.

It will be made available for use by a service person who might want to take on challenges such as Land's End to John O'Groats, whether it is just for the experience or to raise funds for charity, although not necessarily for the Baton.

However, a donation for maintenance would be appreciated by the charity.

Alan Rowe MBE, founder of The Baton, said: "I had seen the benefits of this particular tandem when visiting my friend Ben Parkinson lives of a tremendous number of young people through Devon.

"Three hundred words cannot do this individual justice – we could have written 3,000."

Honiton Gymnastics Club Coach and Board member, who has known Helen for more than 20 years, Pam Burns said: "Helen carries out every coaching role imaginable – from working with our youngest gymnasts to training international performers.

"And when she's not in the gym, she's planning how we can develop our provision for gymnastics further, looking at ways to improve our level of coaching, and seeing how we can give more children the opportunity to participate.

"It takes tremendous dedication to be involved in any sports club at such a high level – and Helen manages to do it successfully at two."

The overall winners of the Devon Sports Awards 2017 will be announced at the event at Sandy Park on Friday, June 30th, which will be hosted by Olympic gold medal winner James Cracknell.

The Baton funds special tandem

MBE, who sustained numerous injuries, including having both legs amputated, as a result of action in Afghanistan with the Parachute Regiment.

"Ben had been on the same model as the Baton Tandem and told me just how much he had enjoyed the experience. It was at that point we decided to get one.

"My wife Pauline and I have underwritten the costs of this project so far, but we would welcome donations for this project and any support would be truly welcome in helping people find freedom and explore new horizons."

The tandem project is a real 'Baton Family' effort. Tom Pales, who runs 'Free-trike' in Silverton, placed the order for the tandem for Alan and will provide ongoing support with future maintenance and advice.

Andy Summers, who runs Land Rover Experience West Country is a consistent supporter of The Baton's cause, has kindly offered to store the tandem for the charity, and Phil and Tania Ford, of Affordable Services Removals, offered help and the use of their vans to transport the tandem to LREWC.

Alan Rowe said: "Once again people in Honiton and East Devon are doing their best to support our forces past, present and their families".

School to hold 'fruit picnic' for UNICEF

PUPILS at Honiton Primary School will be holding a 'fruit picnic' this Friday (May 26th) to help change children's lives.

They will join hundreds of schools across the country as they take part in Unicef's 'Day for Change' to raise money to provide life-saving food and care for malnourished children.

Day for Change is Unicef UK's annual fundraising event for schools and, this year, will raise money to help malnourished children grow up healthy and strong.

Around the world, five children die every minute as a result of malnutrition. Malnutrition is responsible for nearly half of all deaths of children under five and millions more children live with the effects for the rest of their lives, because their bodies and brains haven't developed the way they should.

On the day the children will have opportunities to explore what it means to be healthy (in both mind and body) whilst also learning about how a healthy lifestyle supports healthy life choices. To end the day, the children will be holding class picnics; sharing fruit salads and fruit kebabs with their friends and families on our school field.

Nic Lopez said: "At Honiton Primary School we have been supporting Unicef Day for Change for many years now.

"It is a great opportunity for all of our children to understand how they can support children globally whose basic human rights are not being met.

"We are also a very generous school community and this event will raise hundreds of pounds that will go to support the crucial life-saving efforts of Unicef in Africa."

As well as raising funds, pupils at Honiton Primary School will be learning how nutrition impacts on children's lives and how Unicef is working to help make sure every child gets the nutrition they need.

For more information or to find out how you can get involved with Day for Change and access free resources visit www.unicef.uk/dayforchange

Memories of Cloakham

I READ with increasing nostalgia Derek Sturc's 'An Ode to Cloakham Lawns'.

Like me, anyone not originally from this area could still recognise in these wonderful lines our own version of a vanishing England along with childhood memories.

"A new life dawns for a new generation at Cloakham Lawns" indeed, and with their own memories.

My daughter relocated there a couple of months ago. My three year-old grandson took me for a walk yesterday along the footpath, he surging ahead on his little bike with no pedals.

He paused near the main entrance and looked at a pile of soil landscaped from the path to the nearby hedge, and waited for me to arrive.

"This used to be grass", he said.

DAVE PULLEN,
Seaton

I've seen the new houses.

There used to be similar mystical hidden places all over England that would equally have fitted his vivid description, all gone now beneath new houses.

Derek sounded so sad and passed that feeling to me.

VIVIENNE GRAHAM,
Uplyme

IT SEEMS, until the law allows otherwise, leaflets, street notices and unenforceable fines for feeding, are our only recourse to the problem of gull nuisance.

In my opinion this is like trying to stem a ruptured artery with sellotape (other sticky backed plastic is available).

For those of us whose homes, cars, washing and bodies are daily splattered by gull excrement, this is both a nuisance and a source of avoidable expense.

We can't dry our washing outside (energy cost of tumble drying), we are continually cleaning the paintwork on our cars and houses.

Children and pets are at risk of injury. Enough. A different approach is required.

The greater part of nuisance is seasonal and suffered near urban and semi-urban nesting sites.

In my opinion our county and town councils need to look at ways of denying gulls access to urban and semi-urban nest and roost sites.

This might be by use of planning permission (e.g. requiring all new build to be 'gull proofed').

This might be by requiring businesses and households to control nuisance emanating from nests that they permit on their premises (for which there is already usable legislation in place).

Whatever, I would argue the case for our elected bodies to set up a cross-party group to sort this out, to think 'outside the box', and to come up with a coherent and ENFORCEABLE plan.

ANDREW GOLD,
Seaton

I wrote to the council in 2016 and asked whether they would be able to 'gull-proof' the buildings (I have done mine at a cost of £189).

After several email exchanges I was informed that this was not EDDC policy due to it not being 'cost effective'.

Is this a case of 'do as I say not what I (don't) do'?

JOHN HARDING,
Seaton

I WOULD like to express my thanks for the kind people that helped and looked after me during my recent fall in Axminster.

It proves that there are good people out there with all the reported doom and gloom in the world today.

Mrs B. KNIGHT,
Colyton

EXCELLENT news reference your article: '£80 fine if you're caught feeding the seagulls in Seaton and Beer' (page 5; Tuesday, May 9th).

I very much welcome the reported initiatives taken by East Devon District Council CEO Mr Williams, quote: "The council has done a significant amount of work on the cause of this problem over the past four years, including engaging with local businesses and the owners of buildings on which the birds nest."

My house is situated behind a row of EDDC flats located on Harepath Road. A colony of herring gulls has nested on the rooves of these flats for the last three years; consequently my house, washing and car has been subjected to copious volumes of gull excrement during the breeding season.

Meanwhile, the vice chair of that committee, who supported the development, is being investigated by the police for a possible failure to declare her land-ownership in relation to the Colyton plan.

Colyton's Annual VINTAGE TRACTOR RUN

10:00am to 4:00pm
Bank Holiday Monday 29th May 2017

OVER 100 TRACTORS!

Colyton Vintage Tractor Run 29th May 2017

If you require any details do not hesitate to contact the Committee Secretary Zoe Parsons on Colyton 01297 553286 (days) 07905799427 (evenings and weekends).

MORE than 100 vintages tractors will trundle through the country lanes of East Devon on the Spring Bank Holiday, as Colyton hosts ones of its favourite events of the year.

The annual Colyton Vintage Tractor Run will be held on Bank Holiday Monday, May 29th starting at the Peace Memorial playing field at 10.30am.

The tractors will be lining up from 8am, so get there early for a breakfast bar before waving them off, as town crier Derek Wenn sets them on their route around the rolling countryside of East Devon. This year's run will take the tractors to Hawkchurch Village Hall for an estimated arrival time of 2.30pm, and maps of the course are available at The Little Shop in Colyton.

The traditional event is a firm favourite with Colyton residents and a great social occasion for farming families from around the area, with many tractors pulling trailers full of family, friends and even the dog!

The run annually raises thousands of pounds for charity, with this year's beneficiaries to be Alzheimer's UK and Seaton League of Friends' Hospice@Home.

Zoe Parsons, secretary of the Colyton Vintage Tractor Run, said: "Last year over £3,000 was raised for Devon Air Ambulance and Devon Freewheelers and the committee hope to achieve a similar result this year for our chosen charities."

Organisers would like to thank all of their marshals for offering their time on the day, and to the event's main sponsors, CRW Accountants Ltd.

Haynes Motor Museum

Discovery Week at Haynes 29th May to 2nd June 2017

IS your family ready to accept the Haynes Discovery Mission? Working as a family of amateur detectives, your first task will be to work out what the contents are in one of the mysterious bags. A Museum volunteer will be alongside each bag and once you have identified the contents the volunteer will give you further information about it. They will then give you your 'mission details'. Upon completing your mission you will need to report back to HQ with the information you have collected and you will then all receive your first mission reward. In total there are ten exciting missions. Aimed at families, this is a fantastic chance to explore the Museum and our Education Centre, as well as getting hands on with some artefacts from our motoring past and present. Please see website for further details and T & C's: www.himm.co.uk

www.netmums.com

HURRAH, summer is here! And while we all love the sunshine, it can be an expensive time of year, especially with the kids off school and in need of entertaining. Here are six brilliant summer activities that your children will love ... and that won't blow the budget.

1. Plan a pirates and princesses picnic: There's nothing like a picnic to truly welcome in the summer season.

All children love picnics (and most adults are pretty partial to them too) so dust down the picnic blanket, load up the hamper and find yourselves the perfect place to enjoy some al fresco dining.

Why not make it a little extra special too by adding in some fancy dress fun? Get the kids to choose a theme and go with it ... how about pirates, princesses or Beauty and the Beast.

2. Build a super-cool den: You can build a super-cool den just using sheets and blankets, either in the garden or in your local woods.

Woods and forests are especially good because there's so much natural stuff just lying around that you can use: fallen branches, leaves and bracken for example.

Den building in your garden can be a lot more simple but just as much fun. You will need some kind of framework from which to hang blankets or tarpaulin - perhaps between two trees, or hung over the garden furniture.

A really simple home made tent-like den is to simply hang a large blanket over the washing line, weighing it to the ground using stones or other heavy items. Then have a tea party inside.

3. Get on your bike: It's a really simple pleasure, but cycling can be so much fun for everyone in the family.

Make sure you choose a safe cycle route and know a good stop-off on the way where you can grab a snack and stretch your legs.

There are lots of fantastic family-friendly routes to try across the UK.

Visit www.netmums.com to check out our dedicated web page on cycling for families, which has everything you need to know about cycling, including details of recommended cycle routes.

4. Take the craft box outside for messy play: There's nothing more fun than getting crafty in the sunshine on a gorgeous summer day.

We've got loads of arts and crafts ideas at www.netmums.com for your kids, tonnes of which are just as easy to do outdoors.

Indeed some of the messier suggestions are better enjoyed in the garden where you don't have to worry about paint splatters on the carpet or walls.

Get some really messy activities going with glop, papier mache, or coloured water. Or spread out really big sheets of paper (or use lengths of lining paper or lots of newspaper), put out trays of paint and simply let the kids do huge handprint and footprint pictures - a really fun way to get messy outdoors.

5. Do a festival: Nothing says summer like a festival: they make a great option for summer fun with your family, and thankfully there are lots of child-friendly festivals to choose from.

You can also throw your own festival in your garden - pick your playlist, grab some fancy dress and have a dance.

And don't forget the BBQ for some festival-style burgers or hot dogs.

6. Hit the beach... or a city beach: When the surf's up head to the beach and ride the waves, skim stones on the water or paddle on the shore along Britain's beautiful coastline.

And if you're living in the heart of the city, fear not - these days city beaches are popping up everywhere. Cool and urban and just minutes away from home. Nice!

Pecorama

A Classic Bank Holiday Weekend!

ALWAYS a favourite day out with locals and visitors, Pecorama in Beer is making extra special preparations for this coming Bank Holiday Weekend. On Sunday 28 May Pecorama is hosting its annual Vintage and Classic Car Rally with almost 250 exhibitors booked this year. The Rally evolved from the mid-1990s Steam Festival Days at Pecorama to become a standalone event, growing annually in popularity, with vehicles this year travelling from as far afield as Gloucestershire, Glamorgan, Hampshire and Cornwall to take part.

It's always a lively and colourful affair, with deck chairs, sun brollies and picnic baskets scattered amongst the cherished vehicles. There's always much chattering and camera clicking as both visitors and participants alike inspect and admire the magnificent array of vehicles displayed in the Pecorama car parks.

The Vintage and Classic Vehicle Rally on Sunday is in addition to Pecorama's already popular attractions including the award winning 'Beer Heights Light Railway' with miniature gauge steam locomotives carrying passengers on a mile-long ride through 8 acres of beautiful gardens with sculptures, set against stunning coastal views; plus, the world famous Peco Model Railway Exhibition and shop offering everything for the casual train enthusiast right up to the most dedicated railway modeller.

There are numerous refreshment options on site including the Garden Room family restaurant serving main meals and snacks, The Whistle Stop serving BBQ burgers and sausages, The Junction serving authentic Italian pizza and an original Orion Pullman carriage serving afternoon cream teas.

Every afternoon from Saturday 27 May until Sunday 4 June, there's entertainment with family favourites including Elfic the Jester, A Wizard Called Ozz, Ben the Juggler and Spangles the Clown; plus, younger and more active visitors can enjoy a Pirate ship and three outdoor play areas, a zip wire, crazy golf and the 'Play Station' indoor soft play area. Pecorama even has its very own loveable railway bear, Teddy Mac, and you can read about his adventures and look for him on his special trail around the gardens.

Finally, visitors can unwind by exploring compact and beautiful gardens linked by scented walkways, water features and stunning stonework; then try to find the 'Secret Garden' or take a stroll to Wildway Park nature trail and check out 'Crawlie Hall Bug Hotel'!

Tickets for entry, including annual membership and special events can be purchased from the website at www.pecorama.co.uk where special offers and discounts are available.

Faraday Stoves

THE wood burning Alfa Pizza ovens are incredibly versatile and can be used to cook virtually anything that can be cooked in an oven or on a BBQ. Each oven comes with a free BBQ kit so that once the oven has been used to cook pizzas the embers of the fire are used to BBQ food. The high specification construction of stainless steel and insulation means that the oven heats up to cooking temperature in about 20-30 minutes. Another advantage is that the ovens have wheels so they can be easily moved around the garden to where ever you wish to use them. The ovens can also be left outside all year round or moved into storage for the winter.

Faraday Stoves will be demonstrating the use of the Alfa Pizza range at various events throughout the summer, find us on Wednesday 31st May at the Exmouth Festival.

LOCAL HEART, GLOBAL REPUTATION

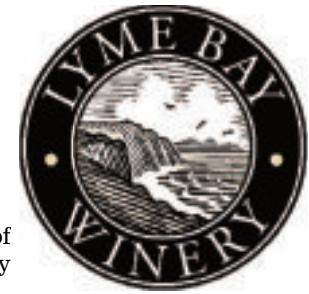

FOR a company that's tucked away amidst the rolling hills of East Devon – just outside the quiet village of Shute - Lyme Bay Winery are causing quite the stir on the world drinks stage!

Renowned for their innovative range of high-quality fruit wines, meads, liqueurs, ciders and English wines, Lyme Bay's products are sold throughout the UK; in Farm shops, delis, food halls and abroad; as far afield as Canada!

Local Heart

Founded in 1993, Lyme Bay Winery set out to change the way West Country cider was made and perceived, with their Jack Ratt ciders - named after notorious West Country smuggler Jack Rattenbury. This connection to their local area remains at the heart of what they do; from the locally-sourced ingredients in their award-winning products, to their support of 73, mostly local, charity initiatives in 2016 and, of course, their thirty-strong winery team; the majority of whom live within the Axe Valley. The winery also plays a key role in promoting local tourism; successfully attracting over 10,000 visitors to its winery shop last year alone!

Global Reputation

Today, Lyme Bay are also a company with a global reputation. Consistently their drinks are recognised for their quality on the world stage, winning award after award in international competitions such as the Decanter World Wine Awards and the International Cider Challenge Cup.

However, with all their international successes, Lyme Bay Winery are clear about where their roots lie; "As a company, we are very excited about how much we have achieved but we are also extremely proud of where we have come from" asserted James Lambert, Managing Director.

Shop Manager, Sarah English, who cycles to work from nearby Musbury added; "one of the great perks of having such established local roots is the loyal backing we benefit from; whether it's those that stumble upon us for the first time, or our regulars who have been buying cider from us for nearly 25 years, the local support is fantastic". With 'English Wine Week' promotions in full swing and product tasting available throughout the range, if you are yet to visit the Winery, now is the perfect time!

Alasdair Beatson in concert

ALASDAIR BEATSON'S reputation as a musician of the highest order precedes him. This gifted young Scottish pianist, who is also Concerts in the West's patron, delivers consistently brilliant performances that have earned him glowing reviews from the toughest music critics.

Renowned as a dedicated musician and a 'canny and uncompromising' programmer, Beatson is unafraid to explore more exotic pieces and his programme for his Concerts in the West 1-3 June tour, which features a selection by Beethoven, Bartók, Debussy, Schumann, Dohnayi and Satie, reflects this bold but successful approach.

Alasdair's previous Concerts in the West performances has shown him to be an intense artiste, totally involved in his choice of works. He seeks to overcome an audience's preconceived ideas through the power of music and his concerts undoubtedly leave a lasting impression. His individual approach and magical interpretations all contribute to building an excellent rapport with the audience.

As well as having an affinity with the classical repertoire, especially the music of Schumann (featured in this tour's programme) and Fauré, he also enjoys exploring more exotic arrangements and for Concerts in the West he will, as part of the programme for the four concerts, be playing Debussy's Images Book 2, which reflects his passion for pictures - "I love pictures almost as much as music" - and his desire to paint pictures with his music.

Alasdair is a prolific soloist and chamber musician and his 2017 concerts include London's Wigmore Hall and Kings Place, Zurich's Tonhalle, the West Cork Chamber Music Festival and festivals such as Ryedale, Resonances and Ernen. This year a recording of 19th century music for horn and piano, featuring Alasdair with Alec Frank-Gemmill will be released on the BIS Records label.

Alasdair Beatson plays at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House on Friday, June 2nd at 8pm. Tickets are £15 (pre-show supper available for £14 but must be pre-booked), available by calling 01460 55783 or by visiting www.themeetinghouse.org.uk Alasdair then plays at The Dance House, North Street, Crewkerne on Saturday, June 3rd at 7.30pm. Tickets are £15 available from the town hall.

English Civil War 1644 A Day in the Life of Colyton Townsfolk Vile Ministers and Poor Silly Creatures!

THE famous Taunton Garrison Living History Group will return to Devon's 'most rebellious town' to recreate the turbulent times of the English Civil War c1644. The scene is summer 1644 and the historic conflict between Roundheads and Cavaliers has been raging since 1642.

Against a backdrop of rampaging opposing forces, Colyton suffered continual pillaging and plundering. Shops broken up, cloth carried away, cottages looted, livestock stolen, reveling and general disorderly conduct. Enough! Cried the good folk of Colyton - we imagine the townsfolk rose up in protest, arming themselves the best they could and took up defensive positions upon news of returning troops.

To help set the scene, an entertaining evening event has been arranged. Come along and hear stories based on some local incidents in the West Country during the Civil War, telling of rival communities as they defended themselves against marauding Roundheads and Cavaliers. A 17th century version of Dad's Army!

Clubmen, Martyrs and a King playing hide and seek!

Thursday, 25th May at 7.30pm in St Andrew's Church, Colyton

The money raised by the Sale will go towards the general planting and maintenance of the floral displays in the village, and the 2017 entry into Britain In Bloom. The schedules for the 2017 Flower Show are now available in the local shops, and will also be available at the Sale.

A call to art

ning the 2016 Ilminster Open was a fantastic experience and a real vote of confidence for my work - particularly as my entry was an unusual wall hung textile and ceramic piece. The Ilminster Open is a wonderful opportunity for artists to show their work to a wide audience and benefit from one of their generous prizes - I'm very glad I entered my work and would thoroughly recommend doing so to other artists!"

The deadline for entries is Friday, July 21st and selected artworks will be displayed at Ilminster Arts Centre from August 7th to September 1st.

The competition carries a total prize pot of £850, including a 3D award and a "Visitors' Choice" award, in addition to the coveted 1st prize and joint 2nd prizes. Prizewinning artists also win the opportunity to take part in a special prizewinners' exhibition at the Arts Centre in 2018.

The winning artist of last year's competition, Jane Burden says, "Win-

The Ilminster Open is noted for the high standard of work that it attracts, and is a powerful measure of the artistic talent in the region. Exhibition organiser Ann Palmer says, "We are very grateful to Branston for their continued support of this event and look forward to seeing what new discoveries this year's entries bring."

Entry forms can be picked up from the Arts Centre or downloaded from their website (www.themeetinghouse.org.uk).

Comedy comes to Honiton

■ Luke Honnoraty

■ Richard James

A NEW comedy club is being trialled in Honiton next week and organisers are calling on the people of the town to make the first night a sell out success.

Westcountry comedian Tom Glover, who already hosts nights in Lyme Regis and Bridport, is bringing a new comedy club to the Three Tuns in Honiton on Saturday night (May 27) with the hope of making it a regular monthly event in the town's calendar.

The opening night will feature a hand picked selection of the south west's best up and coming acts headlined by former South West Comedian of the Year Luke Honnoraty.

Luke, who is resident MC at the Exeter Bierkeller comedy night, has garnered a cult following in the south west since he burst onto the scene in 2010 thanks to his unique take on the world as a working class man who now finds himself trying to fit in with the middle classes around him.

In recent years Luke has headlined Newquay's Boardmasters festival, had a sell out run at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and has recently supported both Katherine Ryan and Joel Dommett on their south west tour dates.

Joining Luke will be Richard James and Adam Money. Rich was a finalist in the prestigious South Coast Comedian of the Year, hosted the Eminent Banter showcase at the Edinburgh Fringe festival and has some great stories of life living in the westcountry. Adam Money is a comedy tour de force who delivers his set at breakneck speed and has audiences breathless with laughter.

Hosting the night will be Tom Glover himself an experienced compere who hosts a number of regular nights across the south west. Tom has been working on the UK comedy circuit since 2010 and regularly gigs all over the country.

"If we get a decent crowd in for this first comedy night then I hope to make it a regular event and bring comics down from all over the country," he said.

"Honiton is a large town with a strong community spirit so I'm surprised there isn't already a regular comedy club in the town, I'm sure there will be an audience for it. We started a small night up in Lyme Regis last year and that has gone from strength to strength and we now regularly get TV names coming to close the show, I hope we can do the same here," he added.

Tickets for this opening night show on Saturday, May 27th, are just £8 and available from the bar at the Three Tuns or can be reserved on 01404 47947. Doors open at 7.30pm and the show starts at 8pm.

Patrouille Suisse adds flare to RNAS Yeovilton Air Day

THE SWISS Air Force's superb Patrouille Suisse national display team has confirmed that it will participate in RNAS Yeovilton International Air Day's flying display on Saturday 8 July. Making its first visit to RNAS Yeovilton in a decade, Patrouille Suisse's mesmerising performance will undoubtedly be one of the memorable highlights at the Somerset airshow.

Equipped with six Northrop F-5E Tiger IIs, painted in the Swiss national colours of red and white, including a large painted flag on the aircraft's underside, the team's National pride is both evident and prominent. Regarded as one of the best display teams in Europe, the Patrouille Suisse performs with great precision and panache. Its routine is based on smooth formation manoeuvres, interspersed with dramatic solo and duo passes and includes the outstanding 'Tunnel' – one of the most exciting manoeuvres flown by any national team.

The Patrouille Suisse was created in 1964, in celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the Swiss Air Force. Initially equipped with the beloved Hawker Hunter, which it flew for over 30 years, it converted to the Tiger IIs in 1995. Its continued operation of front line combat aircraft throughout its existence marks it as unique on the European Airshow circuit, in contrast to the training Hawks of the Red Arrows for example.

Further display team, fast jet and historic aircraft participation news will be announced in due course. Discounted advance tickets can be purchased at www.royalnavy.mod.uk/yeoviltonairday.

Stockland Fair, a traditional country fair in the Blackdowns

THE ANCIENT village of Stockland is the setting for this glorious one-day traditional family oriented English fair originally granted by King Henry III to the Manor of Stockland in 1252. Stockland Fair regularly attracts more than 2000 visitors and is an afternoon of family fun featuring traditional games and entertainments, rural crafts and displays, food, stalls, bar and music. Stockland is in the Blackdown Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and is approximately six miles equidistant from the towns of Axminster, Chard and Honiton. The Fair is held in the grounds of Stockland Victory Hall, with grass field parking provided close by with the generous help of local landowners.

This year there are the usual array of wonderful craft, plant and foodie stalls and marvellous entertainment with Dan's juggling act and close up magic, Rattlebox theatre and the Pasty Pirate show, fabulous falconry display, the big Noise Street Band, Honiton Band, not to mention the steam train rides, bouncy castle and jungle run! Then of course there is the Stockland Eggathon!

The Famous Stockland Eggathon

The star attraction is always the Eggathon which is eagerly awaited every year, and yes it is real eggs they are throwing. Once seen never forgotten and a side splitting entertainment. The record stands at 93 feet for a clean catch with the egg unbroken.

Scratchwork Theatre's Great Train Robbery

AWARD-WINNING Scratchworks debut their sell-out theatre show, 'Great Train Robbery', at The Beehive Honiton this June

After receiving VAULT's 'Festival Spirit Award' 2017, critically acclaimed Scratchworks Theatre Company heads to The Beehive, Honiton with their fast, fun and fierce family show.

It's 1963: the heist of the century is underway. Signals are scrambled, phone lines cut and millions of pounds in cash - stolen. Five days later the first clues were found, the gang busted and the rest - history. Or was it? In their latest theatrical offering, Scratchworks take on this classic tale - with a twist. What about the ones that got away? What if the four who were never caught were actually women?

Scratchworks is an all-female theatre ensemble from Devon. Using diverse theatrical styles, the company creates original stories with their unique blend of live music, dynamic movement and theatrical trickery.

Since forming in 2013, Scratchworks has enjoyed sell-out shows at Edinburgh Festival Fringe, VAULT Festival London, Exeter's Bike Shed Theatre and Bristol's Wardrobe Theatre, gathering a loyal following throughout the South West. After The Beehive, Great Train Robbery will continue its UK tour to Greenwich Theatre, Darwen Library Theatre, The Boat Shed in Exeter and The Wardrobe Theatre, Bristol.

Scratchworks perform 'Great Train Robbery' at The Beehive, Honiton on Saturday, June 17th at 7pm. For more details and to book call 01404 384050 or visit www.beehivehoniton.co.uk

A classic bank holiday weekend

ALWAYS a favourite day out with locals and visitors, Pecorama in Beer is making extra special preparations for this coming Bank Holiday Weekend. On Sunday 28 May Pecorama is hosting its annual Vintage and Classic Car Rally with almost 250 exhibitors booked this year. The Rally evolved from the mid-1990s Steam Festival Days at Pecorama to become a standalone event, growing annually in popularity, with vehicles this year travelling from as far afield as Gloucestershire, Glamorgan, Hampshire and Cornwall to take part.

It's always a lively and colourful affair, with deck chairs, sun brollies and picnic baskets scattered amongst the cherished vehicles. There's always much chattering and camera clicking as both visitors and participants alike inspect and admire the magnificent array of vehicles displayed in the Pecorama car parks.

The Vintage and Classic Vehicle Rally on Sunday is in addition to Pecorama's already popular attractions including the award winning 'Beer Heights Light Railway' with miniature gauge steam locomotives carrying passengers on a mile-long ride through 8 acres of beautiful gardens with sculptures, set against stunning coastal views; plus, the world famous Peco Model Railway Exhibition and shop offering everything for the casual train enthusiast right up to the most dedicated railway modeller.

There are numerous refreshment options on site including the Garden Room family restaurant serving main meals and snacks, The Whistle Stop serving BBQ burgers and sausages, The Junction serving authentic Italian pizza and an original Orion Pullman carriage serving afternoon cream teas.

Every afternoon from Saturday, May 27th until Sunday, June 4th, there's entertainment with family favourites including Elfie the Jester, A Wizard Called Ozz, Ben the Juggler and Spangles the Clown; plus, younger and more active visitors can enjoy a Pirate ship and three outdoor play areas, a zip wire, crazy golf and the 'Play Station' indoor soft play area. Pecorama even has its very own loveable railway bear, Teddy Mac, and you can read about his adventures and look for him on his special trail around the gardens.

Finally, visitors can unwind at an exhibition of paintings in water colour and acrylic by local artist Vicki Morgan; explore compact and beautiful gardens linked by scented walkways, water features and stunning stonework; then try to find the 'Secret Garden' or take a stroll to Wildway Park nature trail and check out 'Crawlie Hall Bug Hotel'!

Tickets for entry, including annual membership and special events can be purchased from the website at www.pecorama.co.uk where special offers and discounts are available.

Comedy Club 4Kids is a hilarious event for the whole family

SINCE 2005, Comedy Club 4 Kids has been getting the best stand-ups and sketch acts from the international circuit to do their thing for an audience of children (aged six+) and their families but without the rude bits!

It has been described by The Guardian as: "A highlight for children in recent years, giving them a taste of some of the biggest names in comedy, with the fun, rowdy feel of a real comedy club."

A decade later, the company has expanded from one London residency to being country-wide, running shows all over the UK from Bury to Bridport, even producing a book on how to write and perform stand-up.

The show is family friendly, but without any patronising idiocy.

In fact, it's just like a normal comedy club, but it's on in the day, kids are allowed in, and thus there is a higher than usual chance of heckles like: "Why is that your face!?"

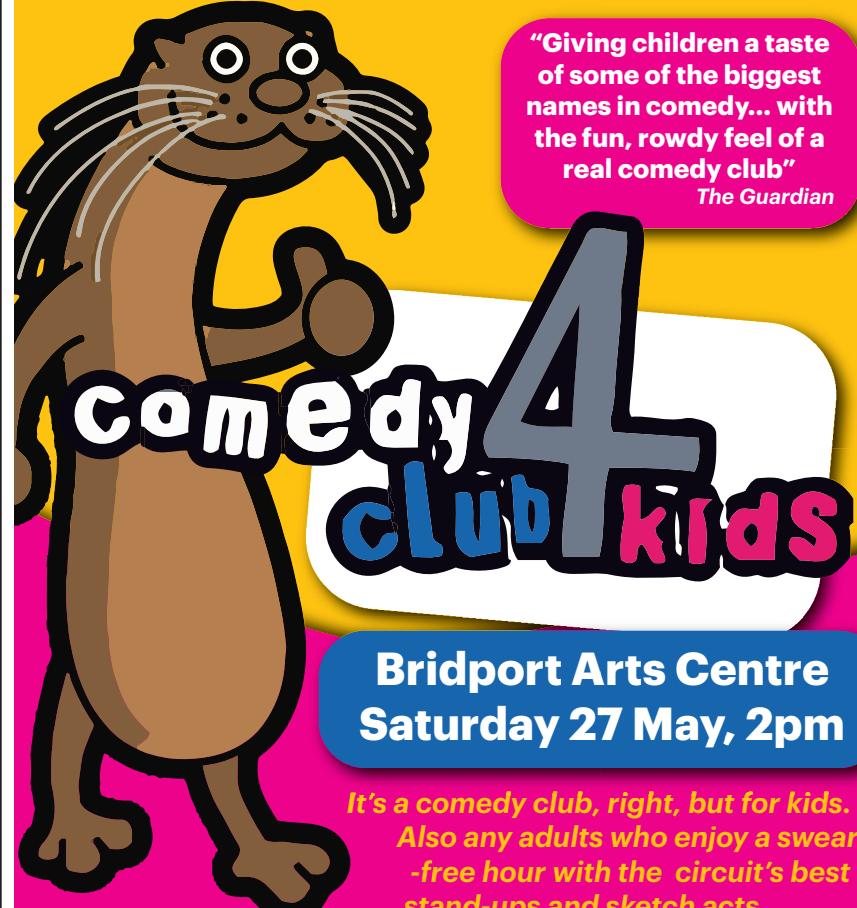

Comedy Club 4Kids will take place at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, May 27th, 2pm

£8/£6 or £25 for a family ticket.

For more information about the event or to book, please visit www.bridport-arts.com or call the box office on 01308 424204

The key to finding your perfect home

Symonds
& Sampson
10th BIRTHDAY 2016

A TEAM of five estate agents got up early on a Sunday morning to run the Bridport 10K to support their two charities of the year.

Jeremy Smith, Trudi Gumbrell, Dan Magee, Andrea Proudfoot and Kate Wiscombe were running for GO Girls! who support women affected by gynae cancers and Mosaic, a charity who support bereaved children.

Hilary Maxwell, Chair of GO Girls said "We were delighted to be at the event to spur the team on – there were many runners, but the Symonds & Sampson team stood out – to us they were all winners – their support to both us and Mosaic has been incredible – a real demonstration of what businesses can do to support local causes. GO Girls! are working so hard to help support women affected by gynae cancers – ovarian cancer having some of the lowest of all survival rates – and we are determined to give women as much support as we can."

Mark Lewis Head of Agency added "We are immensely proud of the team that entered and knowing that our runners were there to support two such worthy causes was a great motivator".

The 10K course wound from the coach station in Bridport and back again. Jeremy Smith, Residential Partner of the Symonds & Sampson Beaminster office and one of Sunday's runners said: "There were some tricky hills that we had perhaps not anticipated, so I think we felt duly challenged".

Teresa Wolff, Vice Chair of GO Girls expressed her thanks to the team stating "It was worth the early Sunday morning start – we are immensely grateful to the runners, there was a great atmosphere and it just goes to show how communities can get together to support worthy causes and get fit at the same time."

To find out more about the work of the GO Girls, visit their website at www.goggirlssupport.org and Mosaic at www.mosaicfamilysupport.org.uk/

World premiere of a new GTI: First up! GTI is a tribute to the original GTI

A CIRCLE closes 41 years after the debut of the first Golf GTI: at this year's GTI Meet at Lake Wörthersee (24 to 27 May), Volkswagen is presenting a compact, sporty car very much in the spirit of the original GTI.

The new up! GTI. The concept and power output of the 85 kW / 115 PS up! are broadly in line with the Golf GTI MkI presented in 1976 that had 81 kW / 110 PS. The near-production concept car pays tribute to this icon.

With compact dimensions, a low weight, a powerful engine, sports running gear and the typical insignia of a GTI (including red stripes in the radiator grille, seat covers in "clark" tartan pattern). This sporty small car will certainly bring a new dimension of driving fun to the compact A typical GTI feature is the sophisticated sports running gear. It gives the car the agility akin to that of a go-kart, yet it also offers a high level of comfort. The production version of the up! GTI will be launched into the market in early 2018.

With the up! GTI, Volkswagen is building a bridge that spans four decades: when the first GTI was launched in the 1970s it democratised access to fast roads around the world – especially the overtaking lane of German motorways. Where large saloons and expensive sports cars had previously set the pace, the new compact Volkswagen suddenly stirred up the field. The red stripe in the radiator grille, the black double stripes across the side sills and behind, the black stripe on the tailgate immediately identified this Volkswagen as a GTI. Its 110 PS powered a kerb weight of just 810 kg and accelerated it to 100 km/h in 9.0 seconds. Top speed: 182 km/h. The colours for the market launch: "mars red" and "diamond silver". Later, white and black also became established as GTI colours.

The new up! GTI continues the creed of the lightweight and no-frills sports car with a compact format – from outside and inside similar in size to the original GTI. It is driven by a turbocharged engine (TSI) with powerful 230 Nm torque. The key data do indeed read like a Golf GTI MkI catapulted into the present day. Weight: 997 kg (significantly high-strength steels and more airbags). Vmax: 197 km/h. 0-100 km/h: 8.8 seconds. Colours: classic once again and typical of the GTI – the plain colours "tornado red" and "pure white" and the metallic colours "dark silver", "black pearl" and – as a new GTI colour – "costa azul" (blue).

The most powerful up! to date is immediately recognisable with its typical GTI insignia. At the front for instance the red stripe across the radiator grille with honeycomb pattern. Integrated above it is the GTI logo. Here the up! cites the archetypal GTI with features such as the double stripes across the wide side sill panels. The exterior mirror caps are in high-gloss black; the 17-inch alloy wheels have also been completely redesigned. They have a particularly dashing look in the wheel housings because the up! GTI features sports running gear, lowering the body by 15 mm. GTI features also characterise the rear: here, among other things, a red strip as well as a larger roof edge spoiler provides for greater downforce on the rear axle for optimised handling performance at higher speeds. The interior includes features as a leather-trimmed sport steering wheel, a GTI gear knob and the legendary "clark" seat pattern. The fact is: this GTI does not just look like one – it also drives like one. A new original.

■ The up! GTI concept car

SEVERALLS JUBILLE

with Christine Rawe

SEVERALLS Jubilee Bowls Club is celebrating its 40th anniversary in 2017. The Bowling Green in Crewkerne was first commissioned after the end of the First World War as a facility for the troops returning home. The Club was revived as a project in the Queen's Jubilee Year of 1977, hence the name of the club.

In addition to the packed season of club, league, friendly matches and competitions SJBC are also hosting a number of Somerset County matches.

Club member Ken Leaman is the 2017 Somerset Bowls Association (SBA) President and it is customary for the President's home club to host these prestigious matches. The first match, SBA President v Somerset County Indoor Bowls Association (SCIBA) was held on the 12th May with SCIBA winning 128-100.

SJBC Chairman Mike Rawe commented: "I'm delighted to be involved with our members - they're such a great crowd who willingly they offer their help not only with preparation of the green and general maintenance but also on occasions such as the Presidential matches.

"There has been a decrease in number of bowlers in Somerset Bowls but we have been able to attract four extra players this season. I like to believe this is partly due to the friendly and welcoming atmosphere we have at the club."

Blakes brothers top in Seniors Open

HONITON with John Pawley

THE Weather played a leading role in happenings at the Club this week. The seniors' match against visiting SIDMOUTH was cut short when the fog descended.

Keen to redress a loss at Sidmouth, Mike Sennett's team were just ahead when the hooter sounded. The Tuesday mixed, and the ladies 36-hole event on Wednesday also had to be postponed.

Happily, the Seniors first Open of the year – the Pairs – started in glorious sunshine on Friday and, apart from a heavy hail shower midway, was generally played in good weather.

A total of 188 players from Cornwall, Devon, Dorset and Somerset took part with prizes given to home and away teams, down to fifth place, with an overall winner. Additional prizes for nearest the pin, and also the cross, were added to by bottles of wine for birdies at sponsored holes, and the usual 2s competition.

Grateful thanks were given to Alan Rowe, Tim Avery, Paul Hill, Blampayne Sawmills and David Rogers for their support. Two raffles were run during the day, with gifts provided by members, the Otter Brewery and Seaton Tramway, and raised over £350.

The halfway hut provided refreshment and that raised a further £150 – all going to the designated local charities for this year – Trip and the Memory Cafe.

The overall winners with 45pts were the Blake brothers, Peter & George. For the Honiton teams, next, but only on count-back, were Dave Maggs & Ray Wills with Pete Morgan & Phil Deacon following with 44.

Duncan Hepburn & Gerry Bolton had 43, Mike Watts & Charles Doherty 41, ahead on count-back of Nick Mitchell & John Locke. Keith Lloyd was nearest the cross on the 18th and Fred Thomas received a bottle of whisky being nearest the pin on the 12th.

Visiting teams from the Fingle Glen, Weymouth, Whitsand Bay and Royal North Devon Clubs filled the places in the away section.

Elizabeth Ward won Silver Division in the Devon Past Lady Captains competition at Okehampton. Continuing the good theme, on Saturday Sue Ritchie and Janet Hughes were away at Dainton Park in the Daily Mail foursomes competition, and won 2up to move into round five.

IN a rain-affected week, the Seniors played two matches.

On Monday, the match team travelled to WEYMOUTH and found the conditions too much as they capitulated 6-0. Two games went down to the final hole which salvaged some pride.

Results: Roger Stone & Mike Hone lost by 2 holes, Roger Davis & Andy Beale lost 4&2, Barrie Heath & Ian Fielder lost 4&3, George Wallace & Stuart Pope lost by 2 holes. Richard Forster & Chris Gingell lost 4&3, Barrie Singleton & AN Other lost 5&4.

On Thursday, the match team entertained LONG SUTTON but were once again outplayed, although they can claim to be slightly unfortunate.

With the result of the match resting on the final game the Saints were disappointed when they lost on the final green after being two up for most of the game as Long Sutton won 4-2.

Results: Roger Stone & Nick Clarke won 3&2, George Wallace & Lindsey Gage won 4&2, Keith Potter & Mick Aldridge lost 3&1, Peter Spencer-Farr & Nobby Hodder lost 5&4, Roger Davis & Paul England lost 4&3, Stuart Pope & John McOmish lost by 1 hole.

The Seniors joined the Ladies section on Friday to compete in the mixed 'Rolling Pin' competition when 10 pairs took to the course.

Result: 1st June Hutchins & Phil Dewar 42pts, 2nd Mari Wandless & John McOmish 38, 3rd Debbie Bargery & George Wallace 36.

Meanwhile the remaining 33 Seniors played a three-man Texas Scramble.

Result: 1st Dave Walgrave; Mike King & Phil Hunt 59.4, 2nd Bob White; Ted Bryden & Bert Robinson 61.0, 3rd Alan Davis; Bob Rees & Bill Hilson 62.0.

SATURDAY saw Gavin Wyatt heading to Taunton for the Albion Running West Country Ultra, a 53-mile multi-terrain race starting out of Taunton.

Taking to the near flat Canal path, Gavin set off at a sensible pace and made good time to Bridgwater in the early morning sunshine.

Turning left at Bristol Channel and passing through marathon distance at 4h 20m Gavin was making better than hoped progress.

Taking to the coastal path along the Bristol Channel Gavin's next hurdle was the diversion around the new Hinckley point rector where the route became more challenging and he took a wrong turn adding nearly a mile extra to an already long distance.

Getting to the 32 mile (50k) in 5:20 Gavin was ahead of his best time for this distance by 45 minutes.

Entering Minehead Gavin now had the end in sight and rounded the corner to enter the home straight into the College and the finish line, crossing the in 9h 35m and in 10th place.
